

Marking Scheme

Part 1 Section A

- |       |   |           |
|-------|---|-----------|
| i)    | a)Breakfast – Jacques Prevert   | (1 mark)  |
|       | b)repetition /to release of emotions of the speaker   | (2 marks) |
|       | c)frustrated feelings of the narrator. She yearns for his company   | (2marks)  |
| ii)   | a)A Bird Came Down the Walk - Emily Dickinson   | (1 mark)  |
|       | b)The bird /in the walk   | (2marks)  |
|       | c)He is vigilant /The bird is careful about his security  | (2 marks) |
| iii ) | a)From The Evening Star – William Blake   | (1 mark)  |
|       | b)The Evening Star /gentleness ,kindness and her loving nature  | (2 marks) |
|       | c)The writer feels that the evening star spreads her love, affection and kindness over the world. She blesses the whole world and protects the world from danger and evil | (2marks)  |
| iv)   | a)From Wave – Sonali Deraniyagala   | (1 mark)  |
|       | b)The speaker ( Sonali Deraniyagala ) /in a hotel in Yala /in a hotel   | (2 marks) |
|       | c)repetition /Her confused state of mind  | (2marks)  |
| v)    | a)The Nightingale and the Rose –Oscar Wilde   | (1mark)   |
|       | b)The Nightingale / This is the situation in which the nightingale makes a red rose.  | (2marks)  |
|       | c)repetition / It emphasizes the great sacrifice made by the nightingale inorderto make the other happy   | (2marks)  |
| vi)   | a)From the play The Bear / Anton Chekhov  | (1mark)   |
|       | b)Popova to Smirnov   | (2marks)  |
|       | c)The lines show the rude behaviour of Popova. Also her outspoken and brave nature is revealed through these lines  | (2marks)  |

Section B

a)

- i) Jagan to Nataraj (2marks)
- ii) At Truth Printing Works /He wanted to announce that Mali had reached America ( 2 marks)
- iii) a) contribution –to help make something successful
b) enormous –extremely large (2marks)
- iv) He admires the boy and his ability. He speaks highly of the boy. He loves the boy very much. He is proud of his son. (4marks)

b)

- i) Sleeper = Prince Edward Tudor who is mistaken as a pauper/ Tom Canty.
Poor woman = Tom Canty's mother/ Mother Canty (2 marks)
- ii) She is surprised because the boy made no special movement with his hands when she struck the floor by his car. (2 marks)
- iii) a) startled = sudden excitement
a) Smitten almost by grief = she was shocked by sorrow (2 marks)
- iv) After Prince Edward Tudor was dragged to Tom Canty's home, by mistake, he declares that he is the prince. But no one believed him. Mother Canty wanted to do an experiment on the boy to make clarifications. Finally she was disappointed by the results. (4 marks)
According to the final result, the sleeping boy was not proved to be his son.

c)

- i) Filming of the last part of the teledrama- Pitagamkarayo. (2 marks)
- ii) Thoughts of the writer, Tissa Abeysekara. (2 marks)
- iii) a)The blood red of the sky is paling = the red colour that washes over the sky at sun set is fading/ it is disappearing
b)Foliage = cluster of thickly growing leaves and branches (2 marks)
- iv) The writer is on his way home. He is driving towards Sri Jayawardhanapura.
Gunapala is a character in the teledrama, Pitagamkarayo. ( 4 marks)